Lyerly, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)— hattooga county has a record which no other Georgia county, perhaps can equal, the census bureau of the United States having just issued a report showing the number of marriages and divorces for the year 1916. Chat-tooga county had 14 marriages and tooga county had 14 marriages and only one divorce.

The government report shows that Walker county stood third in the Georgia counties having the greatest number of marriages. There were 1.083 marriages in Walker with only eight divorces, but the cause of so many marriages in that county is given that Rossville is so near the Tennessee line that many couples from that state come into Georgia to be joined, since the Georgia laws are more lax than those 506-508 Market Street
